Objectives and Investment Strategy

Objectives

The Portfolio's investment objective is to increase the value of your investment over time through capital growth.

ALLIANCEBERNSTEIN®

Strategy

In actively managing the Portfolio, the Investment Manager uses fundamental research to build a high conviction Portfolio of equity securities of issuers that it believes have the ability to compound high fundamental returns over a long period and offers superior long-term growth characteristics (bottom-up approach). The issuers of these equity securities are chosen for their specific growth and business characteristics, profitability, financial position and experienced management. The Investment Manager expects the Portfolio to be sector and benchmark agnostic, with a long investment time horizon.

Under normal market conditions, the Portfolio typically invests at least 80% of its net asset value in equity securities of companies that are organised, or have substantial business activities, in the Eurozone. A “Eurozone” country is a member state of the European Union that has adopted the Euro as its sole legal tender. The Eurozone comprises the following EU Member States: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, the Netherlands, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia and Spain. Eurozone companies include any company located in the Eurozone or which conducts significant business activity in the Eurozone. These companies may be of any market capitalization and industry.

The Portfolio’s investments may include convertible securities, depositary receipts, real estate investment trusts (REITs) and exchange traded funds (ETFs).

The Portfolio may be exposed to up to 20% of its net asset value to Emerging Markets (i.e. any country not defined as “high income” by the World Bank, or as otherwise determined by the Investment Manager which includes the subcategory of frontier markets).

The Portfolio uses derivatives for hedging (reducing risks), efficient portfolio management and other investment purposes.

Under exceptional circumstances (e.g. market crash or major crisis), the Portfolio may be invested temporarily up to 100% of its net asset value in cash, cash equivalents (such as bank deposits, certificates of deposit, commercial paper and treasury bills) and high quality short-term securities for cash flow management. To the extent the Portfolio invests defensively, it may not be pursuing its objective.

Use of derivatives / Investment in derivatives

The Portfolio’s net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the Portfolio’s net asset value.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the offering document for details including the risk factors.

1. General Investment Risk

The Portfolio’s investment may fall in value due to any of the key risk factors below and therefore your investment in the Portfolio may suffer losses. There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal.

2. Equities Securities Risk

The Portfolio’s investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors.

3. Concentration Risk

The Portfolio’s investments are concentrated in the Eurozone market. The value of the Portfolio may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments. The value of the Portfolio may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the market.

4. Smaller Capitalization Companies Risk

Small- and mid-cap stocks may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments than large-cap stocks—smaller companies generally face higher risks due to their limited product lines, markets and financial resources.

5. Currency Risk

Underlying investments may be denominated in one or more currencies different from the Portfolio's base currency. Also, a class of shares may be designated in a currency other than the base currency of the Portfolio. This means changes in exchange rate controls, currency movements in such underlying investments and fluctuations in the exchange rates between these currencies and the base currency may significantly and unfavorably affect the net asset value of the Portfolio's shares.

6. Risk in Investing in Financial Derivative Instruments

Risks in investing with financial derivative instruments include counterparty / credit risk, liquidity risk, valuation risk, volatility risk and over-the-counter transaction risk. The leverage element / component of a financial derivative instrument can result in a loss significantly greater than the amount invested in the financial derivative instrument by the Portfolio. Exposure to financial derivative instrument may lead to a high risk of significant loss by the Portfolio.
